

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

S/L No	Programme & Eligibility Criteria
1	Masters in Sanskrit and Indology Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Sanskrit from any UGC-recognized University
2	Masters in Linguistics and Endangered Languages Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Bengali, English, Sanskrit, Santali, Arabic or in any other Indian or foreign languages from any UGC-recognized University
3	Masters in Education and Teachers' Training Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Education from any UGC-recognized University
4	Masters in Physical Education and Sports' Psychology Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Physical Education from any UGC-recognized University
5	Masters in Political Science and International Relations Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Political Science from any UGC-recognized University
6	Masters in Geography Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Geography from any UGC-recognized
7	Masters in Visual Arts Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course in Visual Arts or Fine Arts from any UGC-recognized University
8	Masters in Performative Arts (Music and Drama) Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course in Performative Arts such as Music, Drama, Instruments from any UGC-recognized University

9	Masters in Commerce and Accounting Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Commerce from any UGC-recognized University
10	Masters in Business Administration (Human Resource) Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course in any field from any UGC-recognized University. However, 50% seats will remain reserved for B. Com and BBA candidates.
11	Masters in Chemical Sciences Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Chemistry or any allied branch of Chemistry from any UGC-recognized University
12	Masters in Physiology and Human Anatomy Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Physiology or Human Anatomy from any UGC-recognized University
13	Masters in Physical Science Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Physics, Electronics or any allied branches of Physical Sciences from any UGC-recognized University
14	Masters in Biological Sciences and Microbiology Candidates having completed a three-year graduation course on 2022 or after with Hons. in Zoology, Botany or Microbiology from any UGC-recognized University

Seats are reserved in accordance with the UGC/ Govt of WB regulations.